Hymn	“In Christ Alone”	IN CHRIST ALONE
	In Christ alone my hope is found; He is my light, my strength, my song. This Cornerstone, this solid ground, Firm through the fiercest drought and storm. What heights of love, what depths of peace, When fears are stilled, when strivings cease. My Comforter, my All in All, here in the love of Christ I stand.
	In Christ alone who took on flesh, fullness of God in helpless babe. This gift of love and righteousness, scorned by the ones He came to save. Til on that cross as Jesus died, the wrath of God was satisfied. For every sin on Him was laid; here in the death of Christ, I live.
	There in the ground His body lay, Light of the world by darkness slain. Then bursting forth in glorious day, up from the grave He rose again. And as He stands in victory, sin's curse has lost its grip on me. For I am His and He is mine, bought with the precious blood of Christ.
	No guilt in life, no fear in death, this is the power of Christ in me. From life's first cry to final breath Jesus commands my destiny. No power of hell, no scheme of man can ever pluck me from His hand. Till He returns or calls me home, here in the power of Christ I'll stand.

First at Home

We held a church service in Moragne park last year and called it “Church Outside the Walls.” Little did we know that in a few months we would all be forced to make church outside the walls a regular thing. But through the providence of God, we are able to continue to worship together and keep connected and minister to one another through the means of technology.

We are still First Baptist Gadsden even if we are not all together at 235 S 5th Street.

By Faith

By faith we see the hand of God in the light of creation's grand design;
In the lives of those who prove His faithfulness,
Who walk by faith and not by sight.

By faith our fathers roamed the earth with the pow'r of His promise in their hearts;
Of a holy city built by God's own hand; a place where peace and justice reign.

We will stand as children of the promise.
We will fix our eyes on Him, our soul's reward.
Till the race is finished and the work is done,
We'll walk by faith and not by sight

By faith the prophets saw a day when the longed-for Messiah would appear;
With the pow'r to break the chains of sin and death,
And rise triumphant from the grave.

By faith the church was called to go, in the pow'r of the Spirit to the lost;
To deliver captives and to preach good news, in ev'ry corner of the earth.

By faith this mountain shall be moved and the pow'r of the gospel shall prevail;
For we know in Christ all things are possible for all who call upon His name.
