Postlude		Mrs. Lana Cornutt

You Are My Life

You knew how it would end long before it began.
You saw Yourself upon that cross.
You gave Your breath and life all for the sake of mine.
You came to seek and save the lost.

I believe that You are the Christ. You are the resurrection and the life.
You are my life.

I can face any fear knowing that You are here
Holding me in Your strong embrace.
I know I'm not alone, my heart has found a home
Here in the arms of Your love and grace.

You are the way, You are the truth, You are the life.
I believe that You are the Christ. You are the resurrection and the life.
You are my life.

Sometimes a Light Surprises

Sometimes a light surprises the child of God who sings;
It is the Lord who rises with healing in His wings;
When comforts are declining, He grants the soul again
A season of clear shining, to cheer it after rain.

In holy contemplation we sweetly then pursue
The theme of God's salvation, and find it ever new;
Set free from present sorrow, we cheerfully can say,
'Let the unknown tomorrow bring with it what it may.'

It can bring with it nothing but He will bear us through;
Who gives the lilies clothing will clothe His people, too;
Beneath the spreading heavens no creature but is fed;
And He who feeds the ravens will give His children bread.

Though vine nor fig tree neither their wanted fruit should bear,
Though all the fields should wither, nor flocks nor herds be there;
Yet, God the same abiding, His praise shall tune my voice;
For, while in Him confiding, I cannot but rejoice.
