Postlude		Mrs. Lana Cornutt

Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find;
knock, and it will be opened to you.

For everyone who asks receives, and the one who seeks finds,
and to the one who knocks it will be opened.

Or which one of you, if his son asks him for bread, will give him a stone?

Or if he asks for a fish, will give him a serpent?

If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven
give good things to those who ask him!

Therefore I tell you, whatever you ask in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours.

And whenever you stand praying, forgive,
if you have anything against anyone, so that your Father also who is in heaven
may forgive you your trespasses.

Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God.
